Dear Sir:

My husband and I have recently lost our life savings in the Bernard Madoff Investments. Our savings were in IRA's, which essentially contained all the money we had. I am 66 and have just undergone a serious cancer surgery. My husband is 76 and obviously will not be able to recoup the losses.

As good citizens, we have been paying income tax in a timely fashion for our entire working lives. This is the first time in all those years that my husband and I will have to file for an extension, as we have no money to pay the taxes

Needless to say, we are extremely disappointed and angry at the lack of oversight of the SEC, which—despite many warnings and complaints against Madoff's operation—permitted him to carry out this egregious and devastating fraud. Clearly our lives have been turned upside down and our senior years have been turned into a time of anxiety, stress and sleepless nights. We are nevertheless hopeful that through your efforts SIPC will be able to provide the full extent of relief for our terrible loss.

Since my family is under extreme duress to receive this insurance money, I would ask you to kindly expedite my claim as quickly as possible.

With much appreciation,

Sincerely
